1. Seventy-thousand square meters of forest land have been requisitioned by the airfield administration in Wittstock.¹ Negotiations, still in progress on 13 March, have taken place between the Forestry Commission in Dranse and the airfield authorities regarding the disposition of the felled timber.²

2. [redacted] no indication to what purpose the area would be used. [redacted] however [redacted] only 75% of the forest would be cut. It is thought locally that the requisitioned land could only be used as a military depot.
